Comments:

While boreholes are being undertaken as part of the proposed works they are shallow in nature (as per the European Commission Guidance Document Interpretation of definitions of project categories of annex I and II of the EIA Directive (2015) these boreholes are under general thresholds beyond which drilling is considered deep) and are therefore exempt under Annex II, 2.d of the EIA Directive and Part 2 of Schedule 5 of the Planning and Development Regulations 2001 as amended.

Based on a preliminary examination of the nature, size, duration and location of these works there is no real likelihood of significant effects on the environment.

EIA is not required.

The project is subject to Screening for Appropriate Assessment.
