Hi Paula,

Please see SFPA observations below:

In relation to the MUL230024, the SFPA do not envisage any particular difficulties regarding possible implications for the SFPA conducting official controls and possible non-compliance issues that could arise, or any possible impacts on seafood safety. However, the SFPA have stated that should it be a case that a further application is forthcoming then they would envisage that there could be significant observations forthcoming in respect of same.

Regards
