The Maritime Area Planning Act 2021 and the European Communities (Birds and Natural Habitats) Regulations 2011

Uisce Éireann applied to the Maritime Area Regulatory Authority (“MARA”) for a maritime usage licence (reference no. MUL240026) under section 117 of the Maritime Area Planning Act 2021 (“the MAP Act”) to undertake to undertake marine environmental surveys for the purposes of site investigation, falling under Schedule 7(3) of the Maritime Area Planning Act 2021 (the MAP Act). The activities are required to support the design and consenting of wastewater infrastructure, by conducting a strategic modelling study of water currents and bathymetry along the Southeast coast of Ireland between Dungarvan, Co. Waterford and Greystones, Co. Wicklow. On 8th April 2026, MARA determined to grant the licence, subject to conditions.

In connection with the above licence application and following a public consultation under section 117(6)(b) of the MAP Act, MARA carried out an appropriate assessment of the proposed maritime usage. On the 13th March 2026, MARA determined that the proposed maritime usage (either individually or in combination with any other plans or projects) would not adversely affect the integrity of any European Sites<sup>1</sup>, in view of the European Sites’ conservation objectives, subject to the implementation of mitigation measures.

The appropriate assessment report and the appropriate assessment determination are available on the MARA website.

Judicial review of the appropriate assessment determination

The validity of the appropriate assessment determination may be questioned by judicial review under order 84 of the Superior Courts Rules (S.I. No 15 of 1986) in accordance with chapter 8, part 5 of the Maritime Area Planning Act 2021. Any application for leave to apply for judicial review shall be made within eight weeks of the date of this notice. Practical information on judicial review can be obtained from the Citizens Information Board, Ground Floor, George’s Quay House, 43 Townsend
