SUBJECT : NISA Application for usage licence LIC230001

Dear Sirs and Madams,

I wish to make a personal submission in respect of the above licence application.
I am concerned that NISA have not consented to a Public Meeting for our Community in the Gormanston and Stamullen coastal villages in County Meath, close to the coastal area which the licence is being sought.

Public walk-in presentations have been planned in the North Dublin, East Meath, Louth coastal areas BUT subsequent to the closing date for submissions.
Also there are questions that remain to be answered from previous meetings with NISA in respect of their connection with LIR, STATKRAFT etc.
We call on you to request additional information from NISA and to extend this to a date after their April 2024 presentations.

Yours Sincerely,
Brendan Regan.

[REDACTED]

It appears NISA did not make direct contact with any community group, DESPITE THEIR UTTERANCES TO BE GOOD AND INFORMATIVE NEIGHBOURS AT PUBLIC CONSULTATION EVENTS from mid year last year (2023) but they did place Newspaper Advertisements on or about 2nd March 2024 (open link to read and see NISA application).

The link above provides details of the NISA licence application Form LIC230001 submitted to the Maritime Area Regulatory Authority (MARA) on 27th February 2024.

UNDER NO CIRCUMSTANCES SHOULD OBJECTIONS/OBSERVATIONS BE SENT/EMAILED TO ANNA JAMESON AT NISA.

PLEASE SEND/EMAIL OBJECTIONS TO THE ADDRESS BELOW QUOTING MARATIME USAGE LICENCE REF. LIC230001 (North Irish Sea Wind Farm Array).
